

Celene Resong is a devoted Catholic who has actively volunteered and participated in various church ministries since childhood. From being a choir member and a youth group leader, to teaching Confirmation and volunteering in the moot court program and other community groups. While attending law school in San Francisco, she was involved in choir and parish council at St. Bonaventure in Concord. After moving to Livermore, she became involved in LARPD's Personnel Commission, Scouts, CYO sports, and school volunteering. Celene's passion for serving as a liaison between the Church and the community demonstrates her commitment to keeping their spiritual home a vibrant and welcoming community where individuals can learn about and grow closer to God.
